KEYNOTES / WORKSHOPS / CONVERSATIONS

Dr. Kerry Magro

From Nonspeaking to Netflix

Autistic speaker, author, and autism consultant for Netflix's Love on the Spectrum U.S.

Kerry brings lived experience to conversations about communication, opportunity, self-advocacy, and belonging. He earned his Ed.D. in Educational Technology Leadership from New Jersey City University. His work includes two TEDx talks and the books Autistics on Autism and Supporting Your Autism Journey.

Find the right program for your audience

Autism keynote: From Nonspeaking to Netflix, for conferences, campuses, and community events.

Schools and educators: Student voice, classroom participation, and belonging.

Workplace inclusion: Communication, participation, and the employee experience.

Families and communities: Self-advocacy and the transition to adulthood.

Watch, explore, and share

Event-planner resources, biography, and professional headshot
Host testimonials and past appearances
Watch Kerry speak: TEDxJerseyCity

Check availability / Request a proposal

Share your organization, preferred date, audience, event goals, and location or virtual format. Speaking fees vary based on audience, format, duration, and travel.

kerrymagro.com/contact | KerryPublicSpeaker@gmail.com